Chairman's Notes

It's my pleasure once again to welcome you to St Theodore's Church Hall for our Spring production. We are very grateful to the Vicar and Churchwardens for allowing us to perform again at what we now consider to be our second home.

As with our previous productions we are performing one act comedies and a short melodrama.

Before the interval we have Itsuitsu Motors. Set in the showroom of the newest Far Eastern motor company the play has been written and directed by Gary Barber of Swansea Little Theatre. We are delighted that Gary agreed to us staging his play and we welcome him as an actor making his debut for us.

After the interval we have a melodrama written and directed by our own Ken Tucker – Melodramatic Moments Or Amber Nectar Works Wonders. Riches abound in Taibach and don't expect any understated performances!

We end the evening with Strictly Sex Factor On Ice by David Tristram. Given the popularity of Saturday night reality TV, if you can't beat them join them.

Thanks are due to all the actors and directors for their hard work over recent weeks. Particular thanks are due to Ken Tucker for very recently stepping in to take over directing Strictly from Carol Scott when she became indisposed.

I must also thank our front of house team for ensuring that you receive a warm welcome on your arrival.

Finally, on a sadder note I have to mention the recent passing of our long serving member Lawrie Evans. Lawrie was a past Chairman of the Little Theatre and an accomplished actor. More importantly he was also a good and loyal friend to many members and is greatly missed.

Hugh Jarrett
